Dear Sal:

Just a little note to say thank you. I was recommended to your company American Signs, by one of my other vendors. In the beginning I was very impressed by your rapid response, something that has become a lost art in today's business world. Although your pricing was not the least expensive, we took the chance because our clients deserve the best and demand it. Besides we all know nothing good is free in this world. We were also impressed in your ability to move quickly once our customer decided to jump. Great work American Signs, another job well done!

Sincerely,
